Bowl Games Due Today

By United Press International

Two bowl games and one all-star contest were on tap in Florida and Texas today and even the experts were stumped in trying to predict which will be the best of the three

They generally agreed however, that all three games should be rather close

Chiefly because of versatile quarterback Billy Lothridge, Georgia Tech was a one touchdown favorite over Missouri in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston, Tex., where more than 60,000 fans were anticipated

The North ranked an eight-point favorite over the South in the 17th annual Shrine All-Star game at Miami, Fla., while the Miami of Ohio-Houston clash in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., was seen a toss-up

The Georgia Tech-Missouri contest, which will be televised nationally by CBS, matches two teams with almost identical records The Yellowjackets won seven games, lost two and tied one this season, and the Tigers won seven, lost one and tied two

Johnny Roland, a 190-pound sophomore who rushed for 830 yards and scored 78 points this season, will be Missouri's chief hope against the passing and running of Lothridge

The North's supposed edge over the South lies in a line anchored by All-America Bobby Bell of Minnesota and 263-pound Dave Behrman of Michigan State
